Better Than a Cure
It is well to cure a cold but better to prevent it. As soon as you feel a cold coming on take one or two "Lane's Pleasant Quinine Tablets." You will not have a cold and the tablets will leave you feeling better than ever. They cure grip in a few hours. 25c a box at druggists and dealers.

Nothing quite equals the satisfaction of the housewife who has succeeded in making her canned fruit last until now.

Something for Headache
Nothing else, aside from money, is so universally sought for as a cure for headache. Headache powders are not safe and they give only temporary relief in any event. The chocolate coated and capsule shaped pills called Sherman's Headache Remedy and sold by druggists and dealers at 10c and 25c are recommended as the best headache cure.

If the "muckraker" who opposes you would only become a supporter he would be an "ardent reformer."

Took All His Money
Often all a man craves goes to a doctor or for medicines to cure a stomach, liver or kidney trouble that Dr. King's New Life Pills would quickly cure at slight cost. Best for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, jaundice, malaria and debility. 25c at J. E. Jackson's.

Wont Need a Crutch
When Editor J. P. Sossman of Cornelius, N. C., bruised his leg badly, it started an ugly sore. Many salves and ointments proved worthless. Then nucklen's Arnica Salve healed it thoroughly. President Helps Orphans
Hundreds of orphans have been helped by the president of the Industrial and Orphan Home at Macon, Ga. who writes: "We have used Electric Bitters in this institution for nine years. It has proved a most excellent medicine for stomach, liver and kidney troubles. We regard it as one of the best family medicines on earth." It invigorates all vital organs, purifies the blood, aids digestion, creates appetite. To strengthen and build up pale thin, weak children or rundown people it has no equal. Best for female complaints. Only 50c at J. E. Jackson's.

Saved From Awful Peril
"I never felt so near my grave," writes Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, Ohio, R. R. No. 3, "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 115 pounds in spite of many remedies and the best doctors. And that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 160 pounds and can work hard. It also cured my four children of croup." Infalible for coughs and colds, its most certain remedy for lagrippe, asthma, desparate lung trouble and all bronchial affections, 50c and $1.00. A trial bottle free. Guaranteed by J. E. Jackson.

$100 Reward $100
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's catarrh cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's catarrh cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents. Sold by all druggists. Take Hall's Family pills for constipation.

If your liver is sluggish and out of tone, and you feel dull, bilious, constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets tonight before retiring and you will feel all right in the morning. Sold by all dealers.

Beautiful is young enthusiasm; keep it to the end, and be more and more correct in fixing on the object of it. It is a terrible thing to be wrong in that—the source of all our miseries and confusions.—Thomas Carlyle.

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successful use in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasant to take. Sold by all dealers.

Let us resolve, first, to attain the grace of silence; second, to deem all fault finding that does no good a sin, and to resolve when we are happy ourselves not to poison our neighbors by calling on them to remark every painful and disagreeable feature of their daily life; third, to practice the grace and virtue of praise.—Harriet B. Stowe.

Doan's Kidney Pills have brought thousands of kidney sufferers back from the verge of despair. Will cure any form of kidney trouble. G. W. Hagy, six miles east of Tazewell, Va., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills helped me wonderfully and therefore I recommend them highly. I was troubled for three or four years by a heavy ache through the small of my back. One time I became so bad off that I could hardly get around. The kidney secretions were scanty and filled with sediment. I was feeling miserable when I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Jackson's drug store and began their use. They helped me wonderfully and I am now entirely well. I will give you my word for the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills."

COL. MOSBY "TOO STRAIGHT"

The merciless treatment of Col. Jno. S. Mosby, the famous old Confederate Guerilla, by the Department of Justice in Washington when he was recently kicked out of the public service for prosecuting land thieves in Oklahoma, is one of the crying shames of the present administration, and is receiving the just condemnation of fairminded men everywhere.

The story of the sudden dismissal of Col. Mosby from the position he had filled so ably for a number of years, is almost harrowing in its details, for it betrays not only the "yellow streak" of base ingratitude down the back of the Republican party, but it reveals as well, the protection, under the very dome of the national capitol, of land pirates, vampires and human leeches, who are mercilessly robbing the poor, unsuspecting Indians on the western plains of the little property they have been able to accumulate.

According to reports sent out from Washington, Col. Mosby was assigned to look after some of these cases, and after going into them he found a firm of influential land attorneys criminally involved.

He had these lawyers indicted, but they at once started to work on the Department of Justice, by the "underground system," invoking political "influence" and "pull" to keep them from behind the bars.

"See that Mansfield, McMurray and Cornish get a square deal," was the language of a telegram sent Col. Mosby from the Department, after the "heaven had worked," to which the old Confederate hero promptly replied, that if the members of this firm got a "square deal," they would go to the penitentiary. This was the "straw that broke the camel's back." Col. Mosby was too willing to do his duty, and to require thieves and grafters to answer for their crimes before the Bar of Justice, and so this grand old man, known and loved for his honesty and matchless courage throughout the country, was cruelly beheaded and kicked out of office in order to protect men who had been adjudged guilty by a grand jury of the Federal courts.

Col. Mosby has been a prominent and consistent Republican leader ever since the stormy days when he was engaged in electrifying the civilized world with his dash and brilliancy as a Confederate leader, and yet his head "went into the basket" with a little ceremony as though he had been a $50 clerk, disobeying the orders of a Bureau chief, when he showed a dogged determination to do his duty as he saw it.

In a letter to a friend in Richmond, Col. Mosby says: I have no doubt could have retired rich had I taken sides with them, which clearly indicates that a move was on foot to offer him a bribe to stand with the crooks he was seeking to convict.

But this is one of the Republican ways of doing things, and as that party is defiantly "standing pat" with reference to all its deeds and misdeeds, the matter will probably end where it is, shameful as it may appear in all its details to the public.

Proposes a Rock Road to Graham
While railroads are being constructed on paper in and about the coalfields, a few progressive ones in Graham and Bluefield have a somewhat smaller and probably a more feasible proposition in the line of road building to offer. It is not a railroad but a macadamized road between Bluefield and Graham.

Without taking the time to refer to the records, it is thought that the matter has been discussed time out of mind by the Bluefield-Graham Chamber of Commerce, but like the rest of its road building enterprises, the discussion with the accompanying resolutions ended the matter and nothing ever materialized. In an interview with the Leader last night Mayor Sexton of Graham expressed the opinion that the people of Graham would build their part of the road if Bluefield would build to the state line. He said: "The highway between Bluefield and Graham owing to the great amount of hauling done over it is always in a more or less dilapidated condition and in the winter at times it is practically impassable. It is impossible to keep a dirt road in any sort of shape, and it would be a great advantage to the business people of both towns, the auto owners and the general public to have the road macadamized."

"I feel almost certain that Graham will contribute to the building of such a road from the state line to the west end of the town, a distance of almost three miles, if Bluefield will build from the end of the pavement on Bluefield avenue to the state line, not beyond three quarters of a mile. This would give more than ten miles of clear sledding including the pavements of Bluefield and the macadam on the Princeton road.

"Our people will entertain the proposition if Bluefield will agree to do its share, which is only a minor part of the proposed highway."—Bluefield Leader.

VOTE FOR STUART
Hon. H. C. Stuart helped to adopt the constitution that enables the children of this Commonwealth to attend the public schools six instead of four months in the year.

The new Constitution of which Hon. H. C. Stuart helped to adopt reduced State taxes, added two months to the terms of public schools, furnished the money to pay the increased pensions and to help build good roads, and eliminated the negro from the polls.

The Reason
She was pretty as a picture
In her bathing suit of blue.
'Twas a costume most becoming,
And the maiden knew it, too.
But she plunged into the water
With a very graceful dive,
Without shrieking for a hero
Who would rescue her alive.

She could float upon the billows,
And beneath the surface stay.
For three minutes in succession,
Like a porpoise she would play
In the water while the other
Maidens shrieked and ran in fear,
And she even wet her tresses,
And got bubbles in her ear.

Much we marveled at the maiden
Who so different seemed to be,
From the other laughing lasses
Who went splashing in the sea.
She went swimming just for swimming,
For she dearly loved the water,
Then we found she was a native,
Not a titled resorter.

Senator Bob Taylor Defies Gov. Patterson

Washington July 30.—"I've got a revolver in each boot and a bowie knife down my back, and I haven't killed a nigger in three days."

That is the reply Senator Robert L. Taylor of Tennessee gave his political enemies when they threatened to lift his Senatorial scalp because he has refused to stamp the State for Governor Patterson and his faction.

"Thirteen times I have canvassed Tennessee for the old party and never flickered, nor scratched nor bolted in my life. Can any of my accusers show such a record? I am not concerned now about my own political fortunes, but I am not going to be read, nor kicked, nor scared out of the party I have served and fought for since some of these men were babies."

Thus the Senator proceeded with his defiance. A few weeks ago the Patterson people exacted a promise from Taylor that he would take the stump and endorse the "regular" Democratic ticket headed by Governor Patterson. When the letters and telegrams of protest against this began to flow in the Senator withdrew his promise.

"I thought when I made that promise," continued Senator Taylor, "that it was my duty to do so, believing that the fight was developing into a struggle between my own party and the Republicans. But I discovered that I was invited to a Democratic bull fight and was expected to wave the red flag in the face of bellowing politicians with bloody horns, the gate receipts to go to the Republicans."

"I was ordered to butt in and I prepared to butt, but in the nick of time I saw what it all meant, and I promptly butted out, and as I went over the fence I was hooked at and bawled at and called a weakling and a trimmer, unfit to be a Senator."

"I am a Democrat and I am not asking any other Democrat to prescribe or disparaging epithets can force me to do what I believe is wrong. I am not insensible to the mean things some of the incurables are saying about me, and I am going to take care of myself at the proper time."

"I am like the bad man from Bitter Creek. 'The higher up you go,' said he, 'the worse they get. I come from the headwaters.'"

To Exchange Mules For Horses
WANTED: To exchange a pair of horse mules, 6 years old, for a pair of mare horses, not over 5 years, or under three years, to weigh not less than twelve hundred pounds each, and work in double or single harness, must be sound and gentle and free from blemish and not weigh over thirteen hundred pounds.

The mules are without blemish, will work single or double, and are good, handy, all around mules, 16 hands high, one is an iron grey, and the other is black, would take mares that are a little thin in flesh, but must be sound in every respect.

NOW LET THE "ANGELS WEEP"

"Man, proud man, Robed in a little brief authority, Plays such fantastic tricks before high Heaven As to make angels weep."

In a report of the proceedings of the recent Stemp convention at Abingdon, sent out to one of the State papers, Mr. L. P. Summers, of that town, who we believe is the U. S. Internal Revenue Collector for the Western District of Virginia, is quoted as having solemnly declared: "I have no apologies to make for the party's failing to reduce the tariff."

Coming from this source of overshadowing eminence, this is a most significant declaration, and we look for it to have an electrical effect upon the voters of the Ninth District, for it Mr. Summers is satisfied with the present tariff law, and if he has "no apologies to offer" for its adoption, then we ask who has a right to klick?

We fully realize the striking force of this brilliant and far reaching utterance, but the rise of Mr. Summers to the exalted position of sponsor for the administration with reference to this measure of national importance, has been so meteoric in its suddenness as to be at once remarkable.

There is a probable explanation of all this however, and it is the general belief, which is abroad in the state that Mr. Summers is First Lieutenant in Company A, Virginia Division, U. S. A. O. H., which is, being interpreted, "United States Army of Office Holders," and he very likely took advantage of this opportunity to let the members of his command,—many of whom it is said were present—know unequivocally where he stands on the question of tariff legislation.

This is the most reasonable explanation that we can figure out with the lights that are now before us.
